

Members and Patrons – their vital role

When our concerts began in 1988 we could not have known where they would lead. We wanted to explore a wide range of chamber music, well known and lesser known, and have it played by the best young professional talent of the day. We hoped that others would share our aims. Happily a small but enthusiastic band gathered to listen. Most of them remain to form the core of the Members and Patrons of Blyth Valley Chamber Music, augmented by many others from as far afield as Wales and Scotland – with a sprinkling now coming from abroad.

Running such an enterprise, even on this scale, is an expensive business. No concert, however well attended, can itself fund the fees, expenses and overheads involved, particularly if we present chamber music works which need more than four performers, or music which is unfamiliar and challenging and needs extra rehearsal. So those who can contribute something extra play a vital part in keeping these concerts alive.

Patrons have two weeks' booking priority, followed by two weeks for members. Also we have a lively AGM when any aspect of the concerts can be raised, followed by a buffet lunch and a chance to carry on the discussions and meet friends. Do join us if you can.

Members pay £15 a year or £25 for a couple. Patrons pay a minimum of £72 a year, or £6 monthly.
