NOTES

Principles

Blyth Valley Chamber Music is a 'data controller' collecting and using 'personal data' within the Data Protection Act 1998; but as a small non-profit organisation, we are exempt from the need to notify our personal data systems to the Information Commissioner's Office (www.ico.gov.uk). However, our systems are designed to comply with all the principles in the 1998 Act:

1 Personal data shall be processed fairly and lawfully;

- 2 Personal data shall be obtained only for one or more specified and lawful purposes, and shall not be further processed in any manner incompatible with that purpose or those purposes;
- 3 Personal data shall be adequate, relevant and not excessive in relation to the purpose or purposes for which they are processed;
- 4 Personal data shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date;

- 5 Personal data processed for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes;
- 6 Personal data shall be processed in accordance with the rights of data subjects under the Act;
- 7 Appropriate technical and organisational measures shall be taken against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data; and
- 8 Personal data shall not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area unless that country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedoms of data subjects in relation to the processing of personal data.

Application of principles

We apply these principles as follows:

- No personal data will be held other than the categories in the table above, by those identified as holding each category
- Data collected or held will be used only for the purposes described in the table above, by the persons or office-holders named
- No personal data will be passed to any other organisation, save where required by law or with the advance consent of the data subject

- Data subjects have the right at any time, on application to the Box Office or by e-mail to boxoffice@concertsatcratfield.org.uk, to verify what data is held about them and to ask for this to be corrected or deleted
- Anyone connected with BVCM who holds relevant data in an electronic form is required to have regular back-up systems for the data, as well as adequate protection against data corruption or theft.

Special protection: credit and debit cards

- Only the current Box Office person is authorised to have access to individuals' credit and debit card information by processing bookings and by taking bookings on our phone line
- Only the current Box Office person, or someone else authorised by him/her in writing, may process ticket purchases or refunds by credit or debit card via the dedicated terminal at the Box Office address – to which no-one else has access
- Credit or debit card details (full card number, start and/or expiry dates, issue number, 3-digit security code etc) will be held securely once the transaction for which the cardholder has supplied his/her card details has been completed and a receipt printed by the card terminal, then all documents containing this information will be shredded at the end of the season

- No details about the card or cardholder will be requested or transmitted electronically at any time, except via our dedicated terminal to our Merchant Services Provider (currently Elavon) for the purchase or refund of tickets for our concerts
- Neither the printed receipt confirming a card transaction, nor the daily transaction summary, gives the cardholder's full card number, nor does this number appear in full on any statements supplied to us by our Merchant Services Provider or bank
- By taking credit and debit card payments for tickets, we are required to comply with the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS), verified each year by a self-assessment questionnaire administered on behalf of our Merchant Services Provider.

General

These principles will be reviewed annually by our Committee and an up-to-date copy posted in PDF format on our website, www.concertsatcratfield.org.uk.
